

THE ECHO.

VOL I

NEW HAVEN, KY. DEC. 25 1886

No. 1

CHRISTMAS.

Glory be to God on High and peace on Earth to men of good will. Angels sung this anthem at the birth of CHRIST; GOD'S best gift to man.

To day THE ECHO resounds this beautiful anthem, a merry Christmas to all mankind, the thought brings joy and gladness dispels sorrow and sadness.

PERSONAL.

MISS BLANCHE SESSION of Louisville is visiting Miss MATTIE BEELER.

MR. and MRS. CHAS. GILLMORE of Louisville at the JOHNSON HOUSE.

Misses Fannie & Lena Miller have returned from a visit to Louisville.

Miss Eugenia Wilkinson has returned from a protracted visit to Louisville.

C. H. BROWN will give a lecture on the Tariff, provided he can secure the T. A. Hall adm. $5.00 Seats all sold

DIED at his residence near New Hope, George M. Hagan age 40 years. The Echo offers condolence.

BORN to the wife of Frank Bowling, a daughter.

WANTED- A WIFE age 35 address. JOHN M. PASH BOX 9

WANTED- To know the best route to "HOOSIER" address. J. A. RUSSELL down town barber shop

WANTED- 10 experienced shoemakers, liberal wages.

address. JAKE HILKER

"NEVER

mind the weather so the wind dont blow". Never mind what other people say about buying or selling pictures. I buy as cheap as anybody and can and will sell as cheap as anybody. I have a stock of pictures, — not all one kind, but well assorted — from cheapest chromos up; in great variety of frames.

If you want a picture, no matter what style or size, give me a call. I also have a fine line of PLUSH AND HAMMERED BRASS FRAMES, STEREO-SCOPES, VIEWS & C. & C.

J. L. Cardin

Call and examine our stock of

GEN'L MERCHANDISE Rapier & Bowling

Coy & Roof Druggists.

Christmas Goods

INSURE your property with

Rapier & Bowling Resident agents who issue, transfer and cancel policies at home, saving trouble and expense to policy holders.

Livery Stable.

JOHNSON & WHALEN Pro First class Teams can be had at all hours, rates reasonable.

THE JOHNSON HOUSE.

T. H. JOHNSON Pro

J. A. Russell BARBER.

Shop on platform near the Post Office.

DAWSON & FOGLE.

DEALERS IN Gen'l Merchandise.

THE ECHO.

THE ECHO.

THE ECHO CO.
EDITORS, PUBLISHERS
AND VIBRATORS.

Price of Subscription... $28

THE ECHO is published "semi-ocasionally" for fun, and alleged to be funny. If you don't like it don't read it! but give it to your neighbor and contaminate his brain with its contents.

A WORD OF WARNING.
Don't try to "wipe up the Earth with it," for we have four well trained fighting editors supported by a boss BILLY GOAT.

NEW HAVEN, KY. DEC. 25 '86

TO OUR READERS.

We present you to day, with the initial number of THE ECHO. We will endeavor to send this little friend to you occasionally, not as a begger of your hard earned money, but for noble purpose of cheering you on, in the battle life; free of all charges.

We, hope through the medium of this little paper, to create an interest in literary pursuits, that will be of lasting value to the community.

Our hope can be realized, only by your assistance, therefore, you are earnestly requested to join us, with contributions to our columns

Every care will be taken to allow nothin in our columns, in any way reflecting on any person's religious opinions; as we believe every one should be allowed to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. Likewise in politics; we intend to keep clear of all political interference, and devote our time and space to more beneficial uses. Trusting you understand and appreciate our motive, and will join us in our undertaking, we start this little messenger on its errand of good among you.

THE EDITORS.

THEY SAY.

That John Barry is getting bald.

That Henry Dawson dyes his hair black.

That Ben. Miller will make an assignment.

That Jim. Ross' flowing moustache is false.

That Steve Coy prides him self on his good looks.

That Prof. Frank M. Roof actually wears a wig.

That Barrett A. Murray is studying for the Ministry.

That Sam Gibbon's wants a small portion of Hodgenville.

That Hardin Johnson will wear a spike tail coat this winter.

That Hillary Fogle is to marry a Bowling Green widow with three children.

MARKETS.

The markets, are steady with following prices firm.

Butter	good fresh @	1 1/2 c lb
..	ordinary old	.. 8 1/2 ..
..	old & strong	.. 25 ..
Eggs	fresh corn fed..	2 1/2 .. doz
..	old	.. 5 1/2 ..
..	after set-on..	.. 27 ..

LIBERTY ENLIGHTENING THE WORLD.

And effort is being made to get Joe Thornbury, the sunset dude of Greensburg to come here and pose on the old sack as a statue of Liberty Enlightening the World. It will be a glorious sight, to see his fascinating form basking in the sunlight. If the effort be successful the L. and N. will run a special train at reduced rates so that every one will have a chance to witness the imposing spectacle.

IT WOULD BE FUNNY TO SEE.

Oscar Ball, waltz.

"String" Cardin, in tights

Judge Peake try a case.

Jasper Whalen, riding his goat.

Sam. Coy, with an overcoat on.

Jack. Thornbury, without the "headache".

Joe Barry, miss seeing a circus train pass.

Dick. Dawson, eating oysters with a spoon.

Bob. Boone, telling Joe Russell, a "funny yarn".

Roger Beeler, miss a meeting of the Gambrinus Club.

"Aunt's" Helen and Parthenia, go a fishing this time of the year.

Charlie Gipe when he had heard a good joke and could not laugh,

THE ECHO.

Our Story.

[Written for the Echo.]

EVELINA'S DEVOTION OR WHITEWASHED GEORGE
A Love Story.
BY

Joseph Garrett Barry.

CHAPTER I.

The clock in the steeple had not tolled the hour, for there was no clock to toll, but EVELINA M'JONA SWOR by the bright blue Heaven above, while she wiped the chalk off her lovely face on the lapell of GEORGE TRIP's coat till he looked like he had been hugging a white-washed post. That she would be his forever more.

CHAPTER II.

The scene had changed; it was winter, and coal was 15 c'ts per bu. the old man had shut off the parlor fire, the burning love in G. TRIP's bosom could not keep him warm, with the thermometer 19 o below zero, and his great coat in pawn; while the soft sweet voice of EVELINA was heard in the silence of the night saying "I want some more kivern."

CHAPTER III.

It is spring, the roses come again, and the orange blossoms shed their fragrance on the balmy breeze; while the merry wedding bells pealed forth their joyous lay

EVELINA married another man and GEORGE he pined away.

THE END.

NEW HAVEN HOTEL.

P. EIDEN, PROPRIETOR.

This fine large hotel is now fully equiped for the entertainment of guest, and special attention will be paid Commercial Travelers. Large sample rooms. Livery stable attached to hotel. Fine Liquors kept at the Bar.

NEW HAVEN, KY.

THE ECHO JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

IS THE PLACE TO GET — YOUR —

PLAIN AND FANCY
— PRINTING. —

WE ARE PREPARED TO PRINT
WITH NEATNESS AND DISPATCH

Posters, sale bills, statements, envelope letter heads, and and bill heads.

The People Have Spoken, and Must Be Obeyed.

The universal cry is,
"Low Prices,"

And the demand is inevitable. I realized long ago, that the voice of the people can not be silenced when spoken in a good cause: hence, in obedience to their call, I have mercilessly applied the knife and cut high prices to the core.

Boots, Shoes, Gents Furnishing Goods, Groceries, all alike have fallen victims to the slaughter; and henceforth shall see no mercy. — Come to the feast, one and all. Bring your friends to partake of the magnificent bargains ready to be bestowed

Curtis H. Brown.

— - Go to —
Peake & Barley,

Bakery

For Bread, Cakes, Candies & all other Christmas Goods

THE ECHO.

Real Funny! Not Too Funny! Just Funny Enough to Make
You Laugh the Rest of the Year.

The New Haven Amateur Dramatic Club

St. Catherines Hall,
New Haven, Ky.,

Thursday Night, Dec. 30, 1886,

For the benefit of the Town Clock to be placed in the cupola of the new Catholic Church.

IN THE CHARMING COMEDY DRAMA,

AMONG THE BREAKERS

— CAST OF CHARACTERS —

DAVID MURRAY, Keeper of Fairpoint Light House. PROF. FRANK M. ROOF
LARRY DIVINE, his assistant. JOHN J. BARRY
HON. BRUCE HUNTER, a lawyer. CURTIS H. BROWN
CLARENCE HUNTER, his ward. SEYMOUR THORNBURY
PETER PARAGRAPH, a Newspaper Reporter. JOE G. BARRY
SCUD JONES, HUNTER'S colored Servant. GEORGE F. DAWSON
MISS MINNIE DAZE, Hunter's Niece. MISS LENA D. MILLER
BESS STARBRIGHT, "Cast up by the waves." MISS AMELIA THORNBURY
"MOTHER CAREY," a reputed Fortune Teller. MISS KATE ROBINSON
BIDDY BEAN, a Shamrock Jewel. MISS A. LUCY HORRELL

The Drama is brimfull of Bright Sayings, Laughable Situations, interspersed with Quartets, Duets, Dancing and Sweet Music, PRODUCED WITH STARTLING SCENIC EFFECTS.
No one should miss this rare treat as we have new scenery painted especially for this production.

Doors open at 7 P. M.

Performance at 8 O'clock

Admission 25 cts | Reserved Seats, 35 cts.

Reserved Seats for sale in advance at CURTIS H. BROWN'S.